

Making contributions to your AET small APRA fund

You can make contributions into your AET small APRA fund (SAF) accumulation account by cheque or direct credit/electronic funds transfer (EFT).

Contributions by cheque

Simply attach your cheque to our AET SAF contribution form. The cheque should be made payable to AET – <Fund name> and sent to:

AET
GPO Box 546
Adelaide SA 5001

Contributions by direct credit or EFT

You can make direct deposits into your AET SAF account either via direct credit at any National Australia Bank branch or via internet or phone banking through your own bank or credit union. Please make sure you include the following details:

Bank	National Australia Bank
Account name	Australian Executor Trustees <Fund Name>
BSB	082-395
Account number	1<Your eight digit fund number>

An AET SAF contribution form is not required provided that:

- You include your five digit member account number, and
- You include the two letter code for contribution types from the following table, or
- Your employer contribution has been sent via the SuperStream standard.

Code	Description
SP	Spouse contribution
SG	Employer contribution – super guarantee
SS	Salary sacrifice
DS	Downsizer contribution*
SE	Member personal – concessional
MB	Member personal – non-concessional

* You will need to complete the ATO downsizer contribution form when making, or prior to making, a downsizer contribution.

Employer contributions sent via the SuperStream standard

You will need to provide your employer with the following information:

- Fund name.
- Fund ABN.
- Electronic Service Address.
- Bank account.
- Unique Superannuation Identifier.

The SAF Superstream Employer Notification form is available online at www.aetmyportfolio.com.au.
